There was the usual large crowd at the Athletic Park yesterday afternoon and everybody had a seat. More than three thousand people paid for admission, and they sure got their money's worth for there were two good games of ball, although the second event lacked interest on account of the easy time the Japs had with the Marines.

The first game between the Boers and Dragonlets was a grand one. From beginning to end, only the snappiest kind of ball was played, and the Boers deserved their victory, for they put up a splendid game.

Luc scored two runs in the first inning. Rice and Josiah both died at first. Two men down. Then Bates binged and both he and Medcraft scored on the funniest home run that ever happened.

Medcraft made what should have been a safe bingle, but the ball took upon itself to roll under the bandstand and before it could be reached both men had romped home. There were no ground rules on the subject, and so McHenry had to allow the runs. Then Elisha Andrews died. Two runs.

The Boers made their other run in the fifth inning. Downey fanned, Rice binged, stole second and scored on a peach of a double by Josiah. Bates died. One run.

The Dragonlets scored their lonely one in the sixth. Apau died, Hong Chack doubled, Sing Chong fanned, but John Lo binged Hong Chack home; then Che Bui died. One run.

George Clark pitched a grand game for the winners. The Dragonlets had him in a bad hole in three innings, but he pulled his team out in every case and never rattled worth a cent. Apau twirled a good, heady game for the C. A. C. team, but did not have the brilliant support that the Boers gave to their pitcher. The official score was:

The Second Game.

In the second game the Marines were attached to a huge balloon, shaped very much like a whitewash tub, and sent way up in the air by the Japs, who had only a medium team. The winners made only two hits, their pitcher was really too sick to play, and

Big League Ball

Next Saturday there will be a new and peculiarly welcome sound in town. Nothing less than the big league getting busy and playing the first game in the series that is promised to be the shortest and snappiest of its kind ever seen in Honolulu.

The first game will be between the Diamond Heads and Punahou. There will be but one game each day and that is quite enough. The games will start positively promptly each day and the players will be on hand to get in the game and play for all they are worth.

For official scorer the league has secured the services of no less a personage than Lorin Andrews, Deputy Attorney General of the Territory. Mr. Andrews is a ball player and a pronounced fan and bingles or errors will find their correct interpretation under the watchful eye of the new scorer.

Eddie Fernandez has arranged for the sale of tickets to take place at Gunst's cigar store every day and, from 11 a. m. till 1 p. m., he will be on hand himself to give all information as yet they piled up six runs. The Marines had an off day, that was about it, and the errors all seemed to come in costly places.

In the first inning the Japs scored three on a walk and four errors. They scored two more in the third inning off two hits, two errors, a walk, and a sacrifice. One in the seventh by a hit by pitched ball, walk, two bases on balls and a couple of passed balls by the catcher. The official score was:

A TEAM HANDS IT TO THE BS

BOWEN'S BOYS BEAT PALAMAS

Roadpounders Delight Their Friends by a Clever Victory.

STANDING OF RIVERSIDE LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results.

Fort Shalters, 7; Palamas, 3.
Aalas, 12; Alohas, 0.

By W. Tin Chong.

A nice game between the roadpounders and the Palamas and then another which was not worth an admission to look at between the Aalas and the Chinese Alohas, were the results of the Aala Park games yesterday. The first contest was another victory for Lieutenant Bowen's aggregation of ball players, which they won in a very snappy game from the former champions of the Riverside League by the score of 7 to 3. Of course, this means that the Shalters have now defeated the champions of both the Atkinson and Riverside leagues, and this is about all that the roadpounders expected to do, even if they have no chance of securing the season's trophy.

In the first and second innings the Palamas were able to connect one run each, and in the second half of the second inning the Shalters made their first run. In the third they romped for another run and this tied the score. Then the Palamas came through with another in the fourth, which inning also saw the Shalters with another run. This tied the score again.

Then there was no scoring until the sixth, when the Shalters made two. This was repeated in the eighth, after which there was no more scoring, the game ending with the score 7 to 3.

The feature of the day was the good pitching of Ramsey, who probably deserved a whole lot of credit for the roadpounders' victory. Strauss also did excellent work behind the bat. The official score was:
